TESTIMONIALS FROM SUBSCRIBERS TO THE FIRST EDITION.

From the late Earl of Westmorland.

"I have this day received the copy of your Anthems, and of your Morning and Evening Services, and I promise myself much pleasure in going through them."

From the Countess of Caledon, Lady-in-Waiting to the Queen.

"The Countess of Caledon very much admires the music of Dr. Lloyd Fowle, as performed in Caledon Church, Ireland; and will be very glad that her name should be used in approval of it."

From the Rev. S. S. Greathead.

"The Anthems possess some important merits. The music is suited to the words, and likely to please the congregations. The Collect for Whit-Sunday deserves especial mention."

From the Rev E. E. Blencoe, West Walton Rectory, Wisbeach.

"I have much pleasure in saying that I think your book of Anthems well calculated to meet the requirements of a village choir, and our thanks are due to you for publishing them."

From the Rev. W. N. Jepson, Lincoln.

"I admire your volume of Anthems very much, and more competent judges than myself have spoken highly of them. In fact, they suit all tastes, and contribute much to the solemnity of our Services."

From the Rev. W. R. Lawrence, Two Mile Hill, Bristol.

"I have much pleasure in informing you that I am very pleased with your collection of Anthems. The music well suits the words, and several of the Anthems are great favorites. I may especially mention the Collect for Whit Sunday, and Solomon's Prayer. I shall take every opportunity of recommending them to my friends."

From the Rev. W. C. Plenderleath, Frodsham Vicarage, Cheshire.

"I very readily bear testimony to the value of your Anthems, as supplying a want which very few publications are capable of doing—that of music sufficiently easy for a country choir to manage, and sufficiently lively and varied to please a country congregation. We have made much use of them here."

From the Rev. David Roberts, Parsonage, Mostyn, Holywell.

"Your Anthems appear to me to be better suited for country choirs than any similar collection that I have hitherto met with."

From the Rev. Charles Nicoll, Vicarage, King's Somborne.

"I have used your Anthems in my church. They contain much expressive melody, and are especially adapted for the general choirs of our country churches."

Apply to Dr. FOWLE, 51, Kingsgate-street, Winchester.

THE PIANOFORTE STUDIES

BY
STEPHEN HELLER,

Thoroughly Revised and partly Re-written; published under the immediate superintendence of the Composer.

Fifteen Books, price Six Shillings each; or, in One Volume, price Three Pounds.

From the "Athenæum," November 22.

"Messrs. Ashdown and Parry have just published a new edition of M. Stephen Heller's 'Studies,' in all fifteen books. This, moreover, is what it professes to be—a work revised, and, in places, re-written by its author. M. Heller has amplified and extended some of the Studies, and introduced entirely new matter, to what extent we will not attempt to specify. The collection, as it stands, is unique in modern music—one not to be studied without profit, and pleasure to boot. No tremendous difficulty of any kind is attempted, and the student who wishes to command the exaggeration of the modern florid school must be referred to such writers as M.M. Henselt and Thalberg, and Dr. Liszt. Yet, no one can play M. Heller's more arduous Studies without having that mastery over the instrument which enables him to render as well as relish the best classical authors. Again, the wealth of real musical idea contained in these fifteen books is something rare and precious. Besides being useful, these studies are beautiful. They may rank, in short, with Cramer's Studies—with those by Prof. Moscheles,—widely differing from both; and it may be said, without strain of the truth, that there is no living composer who could produce a volume comparable to this. A more interesting and permanently attractive present could hardly be found for musicians, be he old or young.

London: Ashdown and Parry, 18, Hanover-square.

DR. MAINZER'S MUSIC BOOK FOR THE YOUNG.

PREFACE.

THIS little Work has been prepared with a view to furnish Schools and Families with a complete set of Juvenile Compositions suitable for all circumstances. The Poetry has been written or selected with the greatest care: it treats of sacred and moral objects, and calls especially the attention of the young to the beauties of Nature.

The Music has been adapted to juvenile voices, and has almost exclusively been written for the present work, the Canons excepted; these latter, as well as the Imitations and Fugues, have been added as useful and instructive singing exercises. J. M.

London: Novello & Co., 69, Dean-st., Soho, & 35, Poultry.

CHAPPELL'S MUSICAL MAGAZINE

OF

Vocal and Instrumental Music,

EDITED BY

EDWARD F. RIMBAULT.

In Shilling Numbers.

Beautifully printed on superior paper, stitched in an Illustrated Cover, each Part containing from Forty to Fifty Pages of Music of the highest character in its several departments.

POSTAGE: ONE NUMBER, 2d. THREE NUMBERS, 4d.

During the last few years the love of Music has spread so rapidly amongst all classes, that the period seems to have arrived for the issue of a cheap publication which shall embrace all the qualities requisite for the full enjoyment of this delightful art. The great success which has attended the cheap reprints of literary works has induced the Publishers to turn their attention to the carrying out of similar results with regard to the popularising of music; and they feel confident, from their long experience in the matter, and the large number of valuable Copyright Works at their disposal, they shall be enabled to do this, not only to the satisfaction of the Musician and the Musical Amateur, but that, by placing a fine collection of Music (hitherto attainable only at a large cost) at a price within the reach of all classes of purchasers, they shall confer a boon on the public which cannot fail to be recognised.
